About Your Teacher
Hello! My name is Krista Rosen. I am a Certified Karuna Reiki Master and Intuitive Healer. I practice Accunect, ThetaHealing, and my own medical intuitive system to uncover imbalances caused by food, microbes, environmental substances, emotional stressors, toxicity, nutritional deficiencies and sensitivities. I've been working with energy healing tools since 2004.

I attended college and had a former career in advertising in Los Angeles. When my first child was diagnosed with multiple health conditions, I left the corporate world behind to search for answers to help him and discovered root cause, holistic healing. I've been organic, whole foods, gluten free since 2004 and enjoy my kitchen garden and toxin free (as much as one can:) lifestyle which also includes using homeopathy as my first line of treatment.
